Hello from Qatar----

The GP Team gathered in a nearly vacant parking lot of Jomo Kenyatta airport a few days ago to say their "Good Byes" to us and to the 5 Kenyans on the team. Lots of tears and laughter, as you can imagine.

It was an amazing 7 weeks.

Great team with lots of good soil and early signs of fruit.

They learned a lot of the lessons that God seems to teach through Kenya and Kenyans.

They saw nearly 250 decisions for Christ, cared for hundreds of patients, taught nearly 1000 students and served, encouraged, and prayed for countless others.

We are grateful to have had the opportunity to lead this team and serve alongside them. What a privilege to be in on that!

Deb and I stayed behind in Kenya for a few days to finish work and to meet with some of our Kenyan counterparts.

Now we're in Qatar--on the east coast of Saudi Arabia--to relax, explore and pray for the Muslim world in preparation for Ramadan (Aug. 1-30).

Tomorrow we leave for NY where we'll spend a few days with Deb's family. Then Deb goes home to prepare for Jesse and Maria's wedding (Aug. 13) while I go to Bear Trap Ranch (Colorado) for a 5-day IV staff conference. Home Aug. 4

Please continue to pray for lasting fruit in and from this group of students and staff.

I'll try to keep you posted on developments.

In His Mighty Name,

Brian
