Subject: Prayer for IV student

Hello---and Merry post-Christmas!

A quick prayer request:

InterVarsity ministry doesn't end with Christmas break!

One example: An InterVarsity student who became a Christian this semester knocked on my door a few days ago. I want to protect his identity---so I'll call him "Doug".

Christmas break has been spiritually challenging for Doug so far. No one in his family is a Christian---besides him. He wants to represent Jesus well.

He said his first order of business is to be reconciled with his younger brother. They've barely talked with each other for the past 2 years. "I've been a complete jerk to him these past 2 years. I need to apologize to him and ask for his forgiveness. I want healing in our relationship."

Please join me in praying for Doug and his family.

He also said it's been tough being away from the IV fellowship for the first time since he's become a Christian. We talked about ways he can grow in his relationship with Jesus over the break---and we prayed together.

Please pray for him to continue to grow in his walk with God.

Thank you for praying!

Brian
